

Anthony Henderson

Anthony “Krayzie Bone” Henderson is the Chairman of The Harmony District, a community development organization dedicated to revitalizing Cleveland through culture, innovation, and economic opportunity. A Grammy Award-winning artist and accomplished entrepreneur, Anthony has built a career creating impactful brands while remaining deeply committed to giving back. Through The Harmony District, he is leading efforts to transform historic spaces into centers for business, education, entertainment, and community engagement, creating sustainable opportunities that will benefit generations to come.