

Camellia R. Dabney

Camellia R. Dabney is a community-driven leader, real estate professional, and advocate dedicated to bridging gaps between housing, financial literacy, and family stability. As the Community Programs Manager for the Harmony District, she brings a passion for connecting individuals and families to the resources they need to build sustainable futures.

Known as “The Resourceful Agent,” Camellia has built her career around education and empowerment—helping first-time homebuyers navigate pathways to ownership through down payment assistance programs, credit education, and strategic planning. In her role as a Family Case Manager in restorative justice, she has worked closely with families to strengthen communication, rebuild relationships, and create structure for long-term success.

Camellia is also the founder of HERInvestments LLC, where she provides real estate services, investor resources, and community-based education initiatives. Her work is rooted in a deep commitment to serving underserved communities, particularly women and families working toward stability, independence, and generational wealth.

Through her leadership, Camellia continues to create spaces where education, access, and opportunity meet—empowering communities to not only envision change, but achieve it.
