

Joseph Chicas

Joseph is a commercial real estate and economic development leader, advising Krayzie Bone on the Harmony District development project. He partners with public, private, and nonprofit stakeholders to advance affordable housing, small business growth, workforce pathways, and culture-driven revitalization.